Harry Daniel Associates

Do you have any bright ideas about what to get your "Man of the Hour" for Christmas? If not, stop in at Harry Daniel Associates, 16 Main Street. They will be glad to help you select a gift for him. At Harry Daniel Associates you will find all sorts of practical articles of men's clothing. If he comes under the "College Joe" category, perhaps he might like a gay, colorful woolen scarf for Christmas. Or if he is more the conservative type, a stunning silver tie clasp or some initialed handkerchiefs might be more appreciated. But whatever type he might be, do visit Harry Daniel Associates and let them show you their selection.
